

Fredrick Lee Scholes

Self-Employed

Fredrick Lee Scholes, 73, died Tuesday, Sept. 5, 2006 in Manteca. He was born on August 1, 1933 in Ogden, Utah. He was a resident of Manteca for seven years, previously of Pleasanton for 30 years

Mr. Scholes is survived by his wife of 47 years, Anna Scholes; children, Thomas Fredrick and Debbie Scholes of Utah, Cheryl Lyn and Jay Nelson of Montana; grandchildren, Justin Scholes, Tyler Scholes and Courtney Scholes of Utah, Travis Nelson, Bryan Nelson and Dustie Nelson of Montana; his brother, Norman Scholes of Virginia.

Mr. Scholes was a veteran of the United States Navy and served during the Korean War. He was a self-employed electronics sales representative for 45 years. He was a member of LDS Church in Ripon Ward, SHARPS volunteer for seven years, and Scouter for Boy Scouts of America for 19 years. He was an avid genealogist, he loved to fish and loved his family. Fredrick will be remembered as a loving husband, father, grandfather and friend to many.

P.L. Fry & Son Funeral Home is in charge of funeral arrangements. Visitation will be Thursday, Sept. 7, 2006 from 5 to 7 p.m. at P.L. Fry & Son, 290 N. Union Rd., Manteca. A Graveside Service will take place in Parowan City, Parowan Cemetery in Utah.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to a charity of your choice.

Manteca (Calif.) Bulletin
Thursday, Sept. 7, 2006